AOS MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

Against All Odds Still Standing (AOS) UK

Ending violence and abuse against women & children

Access to Specialist Support Services – Working for Secure and Robust Communities

Support for survivors and vulnerable people to domestic violence and abuse or gender-based inequalities

We rebuild lives, restore hope and dignity.

AOS purpose is set out in its objectives as follows:

To relieve the needs of women and children, but not exclusively ethnic minority women and children, who have experienced domestic violence or abuse by:

1. The provision of appropriate specialist support and services.
2. Providing training to people working with domestic violence and abused victims/survivors or those who are potentially vulnerable to gender-based violence and abuse; and
3. Raising public awareness of domestic violence and abuse.

What is on offer?

Services are Centred on Survivors.

Confidential advice and support for victims and survivors of violence against women and girls whether in the UK or Internationally. Assessed Specialist Support services provide group and one to one support to all women and girls who have experienced any form of gender-based violence or abuse and gender inequalities.

Your part:

By partnering with AOS, you will help our operations provide support to victims who through no fault of their own have experienced either domestic abuse or gender-based violence.

As a member, you will also help us to provide:

- Specialist support primarily for BAME victims, some are refugees, immigrants, and asylum seekers.
- Support against early and forced marriage.
- Support against Female Genital Mutilation (FGM).
- Support against laddish girl gang culture to exit.
- Refuge (Safe Haven).

Many are orphans, widowed, weak and vulnerable. Your support will also include work on:

- Women and children's health projects
- Education projects
- Social development and programmes
- Empowerment and income-generating Projects
- Building and infrastructure projects

Our part:

AOS sessions develop coping strategy that build emotional wellbeing and mental health to rebuild lives.

The workshop will help women and girls to recover, e.g., over-come isolation, rejection, and the stigma.

Attendees build confidence to lead independent lives, improve life chances and improve their quality of life.

Person's centred model approach.

Processes are based upon a proven successful method of AOS' Unique Programme, which utilises Fikelephi's personal touch process that makes this service uniquely different.

This model approach uses a combination of strong cultural empathy, active listening, and inspirational techniques to achieve positive impact and results.

Rebuilding lives, Restoring hope and Regaining dignity.

Serving our communities

Our VALUES – Serve | Hope | Trust.

We look to Serve our Beneficiaries and communities - to give back, rather than to take.

We want to restore Hope and dignity for all peoples' we come across to help.

We seek to comply and build Trust with all our Members and Stakeholders.
